Dear Senator Baker:

This summer in Boston I read the story of Raoul Wallenberg, the Swede who saved the lives of thousands of Jews from the Nazis in the 2nd World War. He was awarded by the Russians with a lifetime in their Gulag. My father knew Wallenberg well in Hungary. He was a great man. I am taking the liberty of writing you — as one of your strong supporters — that you give you active support to Senator Pell, Moynihan, Boschwitz, a Church or try to force the Russians to release Wallenberg. God bless

Sincerely,
G. S. Boritt
Mr. T. H.
